Estate of Norman and Pauline Kline

Note: This will be a very interesting estate auction as there are many boxes that are still in storage and have not been opened at press time. Norman and Pauline were the owners of Dukes Mixture (antique store) on south main and were in business for over 40 yrs, so their collection is good, as these items were in storage and in their home since they retired a few yrs back. Watch the Auction Zip site for more photos as we will be adding more when we set up for the auction.
